

Terms and Conditions of Purchase

Before proceeding with your purchase, please read these Terms and Conditions carefully. You must not complete your purchase unless you agree with these Terms and Conditions.

Nothing in these Terms & Conditions excludes or restricts any rights or remedies a Consumer may have under the Australian Consumer Law.

In these Terms and Conditions, a reference to the Company is to Penrith Performing & Visual Arts Ltd trading as the Joan Sutherland Performing Arts Centre, Penrith Conservatorium and the Q Theatre ABN 97 003 605 089. A reference to the Venue is to the premises and/or venue to which a ticket relates.

1. Application of Terms and Conditions

1.1 By purchasing a ticket or other product through the Company (including from the Box Office, online or over the phone) or through an authorised sales channel, you agree to comply with the Terms and Conditions.

1.2 Tickets may be sold or issued by the Company in its own right or as agent for a third party (for example, where an outside organisation is hiring the venue and has engaged the Company to act as ticketing agent for performance in that venue).

1.3 Where the Company sells tickets as an agent, the name of the presenter or event to which your ticket relates is usually shown on the front of the ticket but is also available from the Company. The Company has no control over, or liability for, the performance of the event. All ticketing complaints and claims, and your legal rights, are against the third party presenter and not the Company, except where the Company is at fault or where you have a legal right against the Company under the Australian Consumer Law.

1.4 The Venue's conditions of entry are incorporated into these Terms and Conditions at Clause 9, and apply to your ticket.

1.5 Without limiting clause 3.5 below, these terms and Conditions continue to apply even if a ticket is provided to a third party by any means and any subsequent holder of a ticket will be bound by these Terms and Conditions.

1.6 These Terms and Conditions incorporate the Live Performance Australia Code of Ticketing practice – Consumer Code (LPA Code), which sets out a code of conduct for the sale of tickets to live events including consumer rights. You can obtain a copy of the LPA Ticketing Code of Practice at www.liveperformance.com.au.

1.7 Your ticket may be subject to additional booking terms, which will be notified to you prior to purchase. To the extent that there is any inconsistency between these additional booking terms and the Terms and Conditions, these Terms and Conditions will prevail.

2. Amendments to terms and conditions

2.1 The Company may update, replace or vary these Terms and Conditions at any time, including for specific events. Changes will be made effective by posting them on the Company's website at thejoan.com.au.

2.2 By making a purchase through the Company or an authorised sales channel, you agree to be bound by the Terms and Conditions that apply at the time of purchase.

3. Purchase of Tickets

3.1 Tickets are valid only when purchased through the Company or from an authorised sales channel. The Company reserves the right to cancel and not refund any ticket it reasonably believes has been bought or sold by an unauthorised seller.

3.2 In the case of an Event cancellation, a refund will be provided to the original ticket purchaser. If you have purchased a ticket from an unauthorised seller, you have no refund right from the Company and may be at risk of no refund from that unauthorised seller.

3.3 The Company will advise any known restricted viewing information prior to the purchase of a ticket.

3.4 In the interests of maintaining fair access to tickets, the Company may place limits on the number of tickets that you can purchase. The Company reserves the right to cancel and not refund any purchase exceeding those limits.

3.5 Tickets must not be on-sold at a premium, packaged with other goods or services, offered as a prize or otherwise used for advertising, promotional or commercial purposes, without the prior written permission of the Company. The Company may cancel tickets or refuse to accept orders which it believes are in breach of this condition and the bearer of the ticket may be refused admission to the ticketed event.

4. Pricing and Payment

4.1 All prices are quoted in Australian dollars and are inclusive of GST (where applicable). Where GST applies, your ticket is a tax invoice.

4.2 Tickets advertised at a particular price will be available at that price for a reasonable period of time and in reasonable quantities.

4.3 Prices are subject to change without notice.

4.4 A service charge (booking fee) may apply to each purchase and you will be notified of the applicable fee prior to purchase.

4.5 You warrant that you have the authority to make payment for your purchase and that you own/hold or have express permission of the owner/holder of the credit card or other payment facility used to make the purchase.

4.6 If the amount paid by you for your purchase is incorrect for any reason (including ticket price and fee amount where the error was due to an error in a price posted on the Company's website or otherwise communicated to you or human error or technical malfunction), the Company may cancel the order or the purchase and refund you the amount paid.

4.7 Where the purchase was a ticket, the Company may offer you a replacement ticket to you at the correct price.

5. Delivery and Collection of Tickets

5.1 If you purchase tickets online or by phone, you will be given a confirmation number to confirm your purchase. If you do not receive a confirmation number or are otherwise concerned that your purchase was not successful, you must contact us for confirmation of your purchase. The Company takes no responsibility for incomplete purchases including where you have not received a confirmation number but have made no attempt to confirm the order.

5.2 Collection of tickets will only be made upon receipt of full payment. You may collect your tickets from the venue Box Office.

5.3 The Company will post tickets for Season Subscribers to the credit card holder's billing address in Australia. If the credit card holder only has an overseas address, tickets will be held at the Venue box office for collection.

5.4 You should allow a minimum of 14 days for tickets to be delivered via regular post.

5.5 Tickets for collection at the Venue box office are available to collect during standard box office operating hours by the credit card holder or their authorised representative. The person collecting the tickets may need to present the order confirmation number, the credit card used to purchase tickets, photo identification and valid proof of any concession entitlement.

5.6 The Company at its discretion reserves the right to not issue purchased and/or reissued tickets until one hour prior to the performance advertised starting time.

6. User Account

6.1 Prior to making an online purchase, you may be required to register for a user account and to nominate an email address and password for your account. You must maintain the confidentiality and security of your user account (including your password) and must not provide it to any other person.

6.2 You are responsible for the use of the online purchase function and all transactions conducted using your account. If you become aware of any unauthorised use of your account, you should notify the Company immediately and reset your password.

7. Lost or Stolen Tickets

7.1 Where tickets are lost, stolen, misplaced or damaged, the Company may charge an administration fee to issue replacement tickets and may require proof of identity and purchase prior to issuing a replacement ticket.

7.2 The Company may not provide replacement tickets where tickets are for general admission rather than allocated seating.

8. Companion Card Scheme

8.1 The Company is an affiliate of the Companion Card program and admits carers to ticketed events as ticketed complimentary guests. The companion must sit in the nearest available seat to the cardholder to assist them during their visit.

8.2 The use of a Companion Card is restricted to people who are unable to participate at a particular venue or event without attendant care support. Details of use are contained on the Companion Card website www.companioncard.org.au.

8.3 Only the person whose photograph and name appear on the card can use the Companion Card.

8.4 A valid Companion Card or Companion Card number must be produced at the time of purchase, the point of ticket collection and/or on request to gain access to the Companion Card Scheme offer.

8.5 The Companion Ticket is not valid unless the cardholder is present at the event to which the ticket relates.

8.6 The Companion Ticket holder may be charged for the ticket if the requirements above are not met.

9. Conditions of Entry

9.1 Attendance at a Venue or an event and the right of admission is reserved by the Company, the Venue and/or the presenter (as applicable).

9.2 By attending an event, you agree to the Venue's conditions of entry.

- (a) Where you cannot produce a ticket for the event.
- (b) Where you produce a ticket that has been handled or dealt with in a way that is contrary to these Terms and Conditions.
- (c) Where you cannot produce proof of concession entitlement where a concession ticket has been purchased. Concession tickets purchased through The Joan Box Office can be exchanged to a full price ticket at the Box Office prior to an event. You will be responsible for paying any difference in the ticket price.
- (d) Where you produce a ticket that is identified by the Company as having been sold by an unauthorised seller.
- (e) Where you refuse to remain in the area or seat designated on your ticket.
- (f) Where you have in your possession and/or refuse to surrender to the Company's staff any prohibited object or article including but not limited to dangerous items, photographic or recording equipment or food or alcohol that is not permitted to be brought into or used in that Venue.
- (g) Where you refuse to undergo a physical search or a search of your possessions.
- (h) Where you behave in a manner which causes or may cause property damage or that threatens or may threaten the safety of performers, other people, including as a result of intoxication.
- (i) Where you behave in a manner that unreasonably interferes with other people's enjoyment of the event, including through the use of cameras, mobile phones, personal computers, paging devices or other electronic devices.
- (j) Where you otherwise breach these Terms and Conditions or fail to follow the reasonable directions of Company staff.

9.4 In these circumstances, Tickets will not be exchanged or refunded unless required by law (including the Australian Consumer Law).

10. Event Changes and Information

10.1 Particulars of an event may be changed without prior notice. Artists or performers may be added, withdrawn or substituted for specific performances. Wherever possible, the Company will advise consumers of event changes prior to the commencement of the performance, or at the event where prior notice is not possible.

10.2 It is standard practice to use understudies where the principal performer is unavailable for reasons outside the presenter's control, or where the performer is not required by his or her contract to perform. You will be advised of the use of any understudies at the event.

10.3 You will be made aware of the identity of the support acts, where known. If this is not known, you will be made aware of where you can obtain the information prior to the event. You will be made aware of any changes to the advertised support act(s) or performer(s) at the event.

10.4 Seating areas of a Venue may be closed with or without prior notice. If a ticketed seating area is no longer available, you will be relocated to another area of the Venue within the same price reserve. Where the normal configuration of the Venue is significantly varied for a particular event, the configuration to be used will be disclosed in promotional material and event information.

10.5 Advertising for events with adult themes will include information about the recommended age for ticket holders. This information will be available on our website for your review prior to purchasing tickets.

10.6 For some events, the artist or presenter may encourage audience members to actively engage with the performance in some way, for example by standing up, waving or dancing. This may impact on visibility in some seating locations. Where this is known to the Company, you will be advised of any restricted viewing information prior to purchase.

10.7 Once an event has commenced, admittance or re-admittance to the Venue will usually be during a suitable break in the Event and may be to a different seating location. For some events, admittance or re-admittance may not be possible.

10.8 In any of the circumstances set out above, Tickets will not be exchanged or refunded unless required by law (including the Australian Consumer Law).

11. Exchanges and Refunds – Ticketed Events

11.1 You will be entitled to a ticketing refund as provided for in the LPA Code or as required by law (including the Australian Consumer Law).

11.2 Provided that you purchased your ticket through the Company or from an authorised sales channel, you will be entitled to a refund where:

(a) The event is cancelled. (Note that where an event is rescheduled, reasonable endeavours will be made to ensure that you are offered seating in a similar location at the rescheduled event. If the event is not rescheduled, you will receive a full refund of the Ticket price and other Ticket charges.)

(b) The event is rescheduled and you cannot or do not wish to attend the rescheduled event.

(c) The event is significantly relocated, and the nature of the experience and/or geographic location of the event is fundamentally altered by the relocation. You must apply for a refund within five (5) working days of the announcement of the relocation in order to obtain a refund.

(d) An event is cancelled due to unforeseen circumstances that arise during the event, leaving the event uncompleted. (Note however that if a substantial proportion of the event is completed then, depending on the circumstances, the Company may determine that a refund or exchange is not warranted in which case a refund or exchange right will not apply.

11.3 You will not be entitled to a refund or exchange in the following circumstances:

(a) Your ticket was free or complimentary.

(b) You did not enjoy the event or were dissatisfied with the performance at the event.

(c) You are unable to attend for reasons outside the Company's control including but not limited to; illness; illness of any person accompanying you to the event, or other person for whom you need to care; transport failure or delay; or where you choose not to attend the event.

(e) You have been refused entry to or evicted from the event or Venue.

(f) A performance has been made by an understudy in the place of a main performer, provided that you have been made aware of the use of an understudy at the Event.

(h) The advertised ticket price is changed in response to varying levels of consumer demand.

(i) Additional seats or additional dates are released for presentation of the event.

(j) Tickets for a general admission event are lost or stolen.

11.4 Refunds will be paid to the original ticket purchaser. Proof of identity and and/or proof of purchase (including the original ticket) may be requested.

11.5 Refunds will be processed using the original method of payment.

11.6 Refunds may not necessarily be available at the time the refund is requested.

11.7 Refunds will be limited to the face value of the ticket plus any service charges applied to the specific ticket purchase. Refunds will not include costs imposed by external suppliers that you were not obliged to incur but chose to incur, such as registered or express post fees, courier charges or insurance. Where tickets to multiple events are purchased in a single order, the Company will not refund the service charge.

11.8 Unless required by law, the Company will not reimburse you for auxiliary expenses incurred in connection with your attendance or non-attendance at an event, including a cancelled, rescheduled or relocated event. Auxiliary expenses include, but are not limited to, the cost of travel, meals, car-parking, child-care and accommodation. You may wish to take out ticket and/or travel insurance for those expenses.

12. Children's Events and Minors

12.1 Children who have not yet turned two years old will generally be admitted into an event at no cost and without a ticket. In these cases, children will not be allocated a seat and must be seated on an accompanying adult's lap for the duration of the event.

12.2 Some events do require children under the age of two to be admitted with a ticket - particularly for performances programmed specifically for this age group. If this is the case, this requirement will be clearly stated prior to purchase including on the event's webpage.

12.3 Any person (regardless of age) interrupting the enjoyment of other visitors may be asked to leave an event and/or the venue.
