

Q Theatre Performance Ensemble 2025 Information Kit

About Q Theatre Performance Ensemble

The Q Theatre Performance Ensemble is a new program for passionate young performers in Western Sydney. Its goal is to provide the opportunity to experience the thrill of working on a full-scale production in a professional theatre setting.

This kit has been designed to give you an overview of the program. For updated details, including schedules and booking information, please visit <https://www.qtheatre.com.au> or contact us on creativelearning@penrith.city or (02) 4723 7600 (extension 2).

Program Outline and Structure

The Performance Ensemble begins with an audition process, where potential participants showcase their passion and ability to industry professionals. This gives them a chance to gain real-world audition experience and receive valuable feedback.

Then, over 15 weeks of intensive rehearsals, Ensemble members will develop and perform a full-length play under the guidance of an established director. The resulting performance will take place in the 376-seat capacity Q Theatre, complete with full-scale scenic and costume design, as part of Q Theatre company's official season.

The Junior Performance Ensemble (ages 9-12) will be offered in Semester 2, while the Senior Performance Ensemble (ages 13-18) is planned for Semester 1 of next year (2026).

Audition Date: Friday, 20 June, 4:30pm - 7:30pm

Rehearsal Schedule: Fridays, 4:30pm - 7:30pm

Rehearsal Dates: 1 August - 21 November (semester break from 26 September – 10 October)

What Do I Wear? How Do I Prepare? What Do I Bring to Rehearsals?

What to wear: Comfortable, unrestrictive clothing that they are comfortable moving around in, as well as closed shoes. Black and dark colours are recommended.

What to bring: We recommend participants bring a bottle of water to each rehearsal to remain hydrated. Please Note: Food is not allowed in class unless via written agreement with Management.

Preparing for Rehearsals: The director will outline their expectations at the start of the rehearsal period. Throughout the weeks, ensemble members will be expected to express their creativity, memorize lines from the script, and work with fellow members, among others.
